Qualifications

Please describe your relevant analytical skills.

Working in the property management field for over a decade, my ability to handle real life situations and provide logical thinking in order to resolve or work towards a resolution is one of my best strengths. I am very observant and use good common sense on a day-to-day basis, both personally and professionally.

Please describe your ability to be impartial.

I served as an Ambassador for the Austin Apartment Association which taught me the importance of communication and balance between two separate parties. As a seasoned property manager, I conduct impartial decisions each day when dealing with a tenant (resident) while positively maintaining building (property) contract rules and regulations. I put myself in another person's shoes while preparing to discuss a situation in an effort to maintain an impartial and appropriate conversation. I have empathy and a clear understanding of the fact that not all people think alike, and we all have a right to our opinion, so long as its not discriminative towards others.

Please describe your appreciation for the City of Austin's diverse demographics and geography.

I see the opportunities that Austin has to offer to its diverse community on a regular basis. When I hear of tenants (residents) dealing with problems: education, money, bills, relationships. I know that Austin provides support; there is a "list of Free resources" which I hand out to those in need. It is my way of giving a sense of hope and help that Austin is known for. I am very happy to be considered an Austinite. I come from a big family and we all share the same appreciation and care for this city. It would be an honor for me to have the opportunity to participate in votes that will help Austin continue to stay "weird".

Please provide any other information you wish to be considered during the selection of the most qualified applicants for the Commission.

I am fluent in speaking, reading and writing both the Spanish and English languages.
I am an involved parent of both an elementary and a high school students.
I have lived in Austin for over 25 years.
I am in direct contact with the community on a day-to-day basis.
I come from a very big and diverse close-nit family.
